PURPOSE OF THE AGREEMENT

It is the purpose of both parties to this Agreement that, to the extent provided for specifically herein, this Collective Agreement shall:

- a) establish rates of pay, hours of work and other terms and conditions of employment,
- b) provide a procedure for the consideration of grievances and the settlement of disputes which may arise between employees, the Union and the Employer.

1.00 TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT

All bargaining unit staff shall, within ten (10) business days of commencing employment, receive terms of employment from the Employer which include the following:

- copy of job description
- start date
- end date, if applicable
- probation or trial period end date, if applicable
- employment status
- position title
- work week definition applicable to their employment (standard, rotating, etc.)
- hourly wage or monthly salary, whichever is applicable

The employee must sign and return the terms of employment to Human Resources within ten (10) business days of receipt.

1.01 DEFINITIONS

1.01.1 Salaried: Salaried employees may be hired as appointments with or without a fixed term and are paid a monthly salary. Appointment as a salaried Employee can be either full-time or part-time. When the term of appointment is twelve (12) months or less, the terms and limitations specified in Article 2.03 shall apply.

1.01.2 Hourly-paid: Hourly employees may be hired as appointments with or without a fixed term. The weekly hours will vary based on departmental workload. Where practicable, the employer will endeavor to provide full-time equivalent hours. New hourly staff will not be hired if the hours to be worked are regular production hours that could be assigned to existing employees within their regular hours of work as defined in Article 15.00. These employees shall receive payment based on the number of hours of actual work in a pay period.

1.01.3 Casual: Casual employees are hired for casual employment on an “on call” basis for relief work, or to perform a work assignment that is not of a regularly scheduled nature, or to provide temporary coverage for an employee who is absent from work. These employees shall receive payment based on the number of hours of actual work in a pay period. The workweek for the position being filled will be defined in accordance with the applicable provision of article 15.05. Under no circumstances will casuals work more than thirty five (35) hours in a one calendar month period. This limit does not apply in the replacement of temporarily absent workers.

Human Resources may request, through the Union, an increase in the work hours, during major events that require the 35 hour limitation to be extended.

1.01.4 Supplementary: Supplementary employees are existing salaried or hourly employees who perform work in a different position(s) from their existing position.

1.01.5 Unconventional Work: The parties recognize that from time to time it is necessary to engage employees for unique and specialized work that is measured not by the hours worked, but by the product or services to be delivered. This work cannot be measured through established job evaluation procedures. The employer will advise the union of the position title, amount of contract and length of appointment on a monthly list. If the union does not agree it may make the matter a subject of the grievance procedure.

1.02 TERM APPOINTMENTS

A Term appointment, which has expired, shall not be re-posted within the thirty (30) calendar days immediately following the expiry date of the appointment.

When a Term appointment is extended, or is to be refilled within the thirty (30) calendar days immediately following the expiry date of the appointment, the appointment shall be offered to the previous incumbent provided that person is available, and the intervening period, if any, shall be treated as a Short Term Layoff.

- b) Members of the Union Bargaining Committee, not to exceed four (4) in number, when acting as a member of the negotiating committee during negotiations with the Employer for renewal of the Collective Agreement. It is understood that this number does not include a Full-time Officer of Local 4318 and a CUPE National Representative. To facilitate the administration of this clause, the Employer will grant the employees a leave of absence with pay and invoice the Union for the employees' wages.
- c) A union representative, when involved in discussions with the Employer related to the processing of a grievance pursuant to the Grievance Procedure as outlined in this Agreement. The Union will receive a response within one month of the date the submission is received. This response will provide information on the administrative body that will review the recommendation and an estimated time line for the decision-making process. After receiving a decision on the recommendation, the union may choose to submit the recommendation to the President for further consideration. The decision of the President is final and binding.

Recommendations under this article shall not relate to the settlement of grievances, the procedure for which is outlined in Article 36.

The Employer retains all rights not expressly limited by the terms of this Agreement. Such rules and regulations established by these rights shall not be inconsistent with this Agreement.

5.00 NON-DISCRIMINATION

The employment of support staff shall be carried out in accordance with the requirements of the Alberta Human Rights Act.

6.00 JOB POSTINGS

Where more than one individual will be hired for a period, the number of positions being filled shall be stated. The posting requirement shall be waived in those cases where an employee on the recall list is placed in a vacant position or when a promotion within a department does not result in a vacant position.

When an employee is promoted from within a department to a vacant position and this results in further similar promotions or transfers in the same department, only the position remaining vacant requires posting.

The Employer will create an electronic job posting for all salaried and hourly unionized positions that shall be forwarded to the Union to share with its members.

All job postings shall include position title, rate of pay, summary of duties, hours of work, union job or not and the minimum qualifications of the position.

All internal candidates who possess the posted qualifications shall be given an interview. This requirement may be waived in those cases where the employee has been interviewed for the same position within the previous three (3) months.

6.01 PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Performance evaluations shall be conducted by the supervisor and discussed with each employee. The employee shall be given a copy of the evaluation. The employee's job description shall be reviewed at this time and shall be used as a basis for discussions related to the employee's performance.

7.00 PROBATION PERIOD

7.01 SALARIED EMPLOYEES

Upon appointment, a Salaried Employee shall have a probation period not to exceed six (6) months. When the probationary period is less than six (6) months, it may be extended for a further period not to exceed a combined total of six (6) months.

7.02 HOURLY PAID EMPLOYEES

Employees shall have a probation period not to exceed 500 hours worked in the position. The probationary period may be extended up to an additional 500 hours worked in the position.

7.03 Extensions shall be communicated to the employee no later than five (5) work days prior to the expiration of the probation period. Extensions must be by mutual agreement with the Union.

7.04 The probation period may be extended by the length of any absence paid or unpaid, of more than 5 consecutive days, when such absence occurs during the probation period.

7.05 During the probationary period the employee shall be advised as to whether they are meeting the performance and conduct expectations of their supervisor.

7.06 The employment of a probationary employee may be terminated at any time during the probationary period and any grievance arising from the termination shall not be submitted to arbitration.

7.07 An employee shall serve only one probationary period with respect to any one continuous period of employment with the Employer.

7.08 Employees hired at any rate at or between the probationary and base rate for the pay level shall be placed at the base rate upon successful completion of the probation period.

7.09 A Probationary Employee who is promoted or transferred shall continue to serve the period of probation stipulated in the original terms of appointment, subject to an extension as provided under Articles 7.01 or 7.02. A trial period under 7.10 may be used to provide a combined total of 500 hours of evaluation in the new position. Under no circumstances will a trial period be used to extend a probation period.

7.10 TRIAL PERIODS

All promotions and voluntary transfers shall be on a trial basis. The transferred or promoted employee will be given a trial period of five hundred (500) worked hours in which to demonstrate ability to perform the new position satisfactorily. If, during the above mentioned trial period the employee does not succeed, or chooses not to continue in the position, the Employer will reinstate the employee in the former position or, if the former position is not available, place the employee in another suitable position provided such position is available and provided the employee has the skills, training, knowledge and ability to perform the work satisfactorily. In the event that a suitable position is not available, the employee shall be laid off in accordance with the provisions of Article 13.00 – Long-Term Lay-off & Recall.

8.00 VIEWING FILE

Employees may schedule an appointment to view their personnel file twice in every year and in the event of a grievance. This file may be viewed in the offices of the Human Resources Department.

An employee may authorize a Union Representative to view their personnel file by providing written authorization to the Human Resources Department and the Union.

8.01 NEGATIVE REPORTS

An employee shall be given copies of reports which are to be placed on their personnel file. As an alternative to the Grievance Process (see Article 36.00), the employee is entitled to place a rebuttal to any negative report which is placed on their file.

An employee, who has been disciplined by means of a negative report on their file, will not have the discipline used against them when 24 months of service has passed from the date the action was taken, provided the employee's file does not contain any further record of disciplinary action. If these conditions are met, the employee may request to have this negative report purged from their employee file.

9.00 ACTING INCUMBENCY

To be eligible for acting incumbency pay, an employee shall be required to perform a majority of the principal duties of a position in a higher paid classification for a minimum period of not less than 5 consecutive work days. During this time the employee may also be required to perform some, but not all, of the duties of their regular position. On completion of the minimum 5 day qualifying period in an 'acting' position, an employee shall be eligible for acting incumbency pay for the total period of the acting incumbency, including the 5 day qualifying period.

Once an employee qualifies in an 'acting' capacity, they shall receive acting incumbency pay of 5% if acting for an employee in the bargaining unit, or the base rate of the higher level position, whichever is greater. Where an employee is required to replace 2 or more employees in sequence, the 'acting' periods shall be deemed to be one. Prior to the commencement of the higher duties being assigned, the employee will be advised of the following: start date, position title, work week definition for the position, hourly wage or monthly salary whichever is applicable, and a copy of the job description of the position to be filled.

Other forms of stipend may be paid by the Employer with the agreement of the Union.

9.01 TEMPORARY REASSIGNMENT

An employee may seek a temporary reassignment or be temporarily reassigned by their supervisor to do other work within their own department or other department of the employer. The employee's rights, medical related benefits, entitlements and privileges available to the employee shall remain unchanged. At the completion of the reassignment, the employee shall be returned to their former position at the same rate of pay. The employee's salary during the reassignment shall be determined by Pay Administration Memorandum of Agreement Articles 8, 10, 11, 12, whichever is applicable.

10.00 DISCIPLINE

Discipline is defined as a written reprimand, a suspension, a demotion or a dismissal applied to an employee for just cause by the Employer.

10.01 GENERAL RE: NOTICES

Notices by the Employer may be hand-delivered, or sent to the employee's last known address.

Any written notice by the employee must be addressed to:
Director, Human Resources
The Banff Centre
Box 1020, Station 19
Banff, Alberta T1L 1H5

11.00 SHORT-TERM LAY-OFF AND RECALL

A short-term lay-off is defined as the discontinuation of work for a period not to exceed six (6) consecutive calendar months due to lack of work in the position occupied by the employee and it is anticipated that the employee shall be recalled to their former position after the lay-off.

When reducing staff within a department, the employer shall layoff the employee with the least service in the affected position, provided that the remaining employees have the qualifications and ability to perform the available work.

Written notice of short-term lay-off shall be a minimum of one (1) week working notice or pay in lieu of notice as determined by the Employer for a lay-off less than two (2) months in duration, and a minimum of two (2) weeks working notice or pay in lieu of notice as determined by the Employer for a lay-off more than two (2) months but less than six (6) in duration. Any Hourly-Paid employee hired for a capital renovation shall be given a minimum of two (2) days notice of lay-off.

11.01 RECALL FROM SHORT-TERM LAY-OFF

When increasing the workforce, recalls shall be carried out in order of length of service within the affected position, provided the employee has the qualifications and ability to perform the available work. It is the employee's responsibility to keep the Employer informed of their current address and telephone number.

The Employer and the Union are committed to assist employees with life threatening diseases.

31.00 SICK LEAVE

Sick Leave entitlement is intended to assist an employee through periods of genuine illness by providing either full or partial wage loss compensation for an absence due to illness. Sick Leave provides protection for an employee against the economic impact of long term illness.

31.01 – SICK LEAVE ENTITLEMENT FOR SALARIED FULL-TIME EMPLOYEES

Sick leave means an illness which causes a salaried employee to be absent from duty for a period of three consecutive working days or less, and medical appointments as outlined in Article 31.06.

A salaried employee shall not be eligible for sick leave entitlements until the completion of 3 months employment with the Employer. An employee shall not be allowed a total of more than ten work days in each employment year as leave of absence with pay on account of sick leave. Should an employee exceed the ten work days of sick leave, they shall be allowed time off for sick leave on a leave without pay basis.

31.02 SHORT TERM DISABILITY ENTITLEMENT FOR SALARIED FULL-TIME EMPLOYEES

Short term disability means an illness which causes a salaried employee to be absent from duty for a period of more than three consecutive working days but less than 120 consecutive working days or six months, whichever is the shorter period. An employee on sick leave for less than three consecutive work days, who in the seven calendar days following their return to work, is required to take additional time off related to the same illness shall have this absence recognized as short term disability provided the total absence exceeds three work days and the absence due to medical reasons is supported by a doctor's certificate.

A salaried employee shall not be eligible for short term disability entitlements until the completion of 3 months employment with the Employer.

Leave of absence with pay in each year of employment is allowable on account of short term disability as follows:

- a) After the third month, but within the first year: 10 work days at full pay; 110 work days at 70% pay;
- b) In the second year of employment: 15 work days at full pay; 105 work days at 70% pay;
- c) In the third year of employment: 25 work days at full pay; 95 work days at 70% pay;
- d) In the fourth year of employment: 35 work days at full pay; 85 work days at 70% pay;
- e) In the fifth year of employment: 45 work days at full pay; 75 work days at 70% pay;
- f) In the sixth or subsequent years of employment: 60 work days at full pay; 60 work days at 70% pay.

31.03 SALARIED PART-TIME AND HOURLY-PAID EMPLOYEES

Leave with pay on account of illness shall be provided on the same basis as for Salaried full-time employees but is proportionate to the employee's actual hours worked in the previous 4 pay periods.

31.04 CONDITIONS OF SICK OR SHORT TERM DISABILITY LEAVE

- a) When an absence due to illness continues from one employment year into the next, the period of leave with pay for that absence is determined according to the year in which the absence commenced.
- b) Leave entitlement for an employee who is on sick and/or short term disability at the commencement of a new employment year, shall continue from the prior year of employment. Leave entitlement for the new employment year shall not be credited to the employee until they return to the active work force for a period of not less than 20 consecutive working days.
- c) An employee who is unable to report for work due to illness must report their absence as outlined in Article 15.07 - Reporting of Absences.
- d) In order to be eligible for the leave entitlement, an employee shall be required to satisfy the Employer of the validity of an illness resulting in an absence from work. Based on the employee's frequency or pattern of illness during the preceding twelve (12) months, the Employer may require the employee to provide further explanation and/or documentation from the employee's attending physician.
- e) When a day designated as a paid public holiday falls within a period of illness, it shall be counted as a day of illness and under no circumstances shall it be considered a Paid Public Holiday.
- f) An employee may be disqualified from receiving sick or short term disability leave and/or benefits pursuant to the Long Term Disability Insurance Plan if they refuse to accept work which, in the opinion of a physician, the employee is capable of performing.
- g) The Employer has the right to require the employee to perform duties that, in the opinion of the physician, are consistent with the rehabilitation and/or recovery of that employee. The Union shall be informed of the duties assigned to the employee.
- h) This leave entitlement for employees shall not extend beyond their term of appointment.
- i) The Employer has the right to require the employee to provide medical documentation from a physician of the Employer's choice when it is deemed that a second opinion is required.

- j) Should the Employer require the employee to provide documentation from a physician, the Employer shall reimburse the physician's fee incurred to obtain the medical documentation.

31.05 OTHER

The Sick Leave benefits outlined above do not prohibit the Employer from taking action if an employee's record of sporadic and intermittent, absences is excessive, resulting in a negative impact upon the operation of the department, and as such warrants termination, even though the absenteeism has not exhausted the Sick Leave provisions.

31.06 MEDICAL AND DENTAL APPOINTMENTS

- a) Non-emergency medical and dental appointments that the employee can anticipate must be scheduled in such a way as to conflict as little as possible with the work of the employee's department. The employee shall be required to provide their supervisor with adequate notice of such an appointment. An Employee may request that their schedule be altered to minimize any absence from work. The Employer shall decide if the operation of the department can accommodate the request. Any absence from work shall be considered as unpaid leave.
- b) Medical and dental appointments required to treat an emergency, cannot be anticipated or planned. Any absence from work for medical or dental emergencies shall be considered under the Sick Leave provisions above. Medical and dental appointments involving specialized treatments and consultations with specialists shall be eligible for compensation under the sick leave provisions.
- c) Any absence due to injury that qualifies for WCB coverage shall be covered by the WCB provisions of this Agreement.

32.00 MATERNITY LEAVE

Maternity leave is available to a pregnant employee who has been employed by the Employer for at least 52 consecutive weeks.

A minimum 6 week health-related absence shall be granted to the employee commencing with the birth date of the child. Should the health-related period be extended to cover a period either prior to the birth of the child or following the six weeks as outlined above, medical certification shall be required. The health-related absence refers only to the health of the employee, and not the child.

During the health-related absence period the Employer shall, upon submission of evidence of her remuneration from Employment Insurance Commission (EIC), pay the employee the difference between the amount received under the maternity allowance and 70% or 100% of regular salary. The value of the “top up” shall be subject to the level of the employee’s General Sick entitlement at the commencement of maternity leave.

The Employer shall continue to pay the normal employer portion of the benefit premiums during the health-related portion of the absence, and the employee shall continue to pay the employee portion of the premiums. Health benefit coverage for the remainder of the maternity leave shall be available to the employee, with the exception of long term disability. The employee shall be responsible for both the employee and employer premiums during this period. Any illness occurring during the pregnancy and before the maternity leave commencement date shall be considered under the sick leave clauses of this agreement.

Employees who have not been granted a maternity leave shall receive coverage for the health-related portion of their leave and benefit premiums as outlined above.

A pregnant employee may request maternity leave without pay, for a period not exceeding 15 consecutive weeks inclusive of the 6 week health-related absence. The employee must provide written notice at least six weeks prior to the date of expected confinement.

If employees intend to share parental leave, they must give notice of their intention to share parental leave.
- b) If employees are parents of the same child, parental leave granted under 1(b) may be taken wholly by one employee or shared between both employees. However, employees may not take parental leave simultaneously.
- c) The application for the leave must be made in writing to the employee's supervisor, with a copy forwarded to the Director, Human Resources.

Health benefit coverage shall be available to the employee, with the exception of long term disability. The employee shall be responsible for both the employee and employer premiums during this period.

The employee shall be required to furnish proof of adoption.

- d) An employee on maternity, parental or adoption leave, shall be required to give a minimum of four weeks written notice of intention to return to work or notice to change their date of return prior to the ending of the leave period. When employees overstay their leave without permission of their manager, they shall automatically forfeit their position with the Employer, unless the lack of notice to the Employer is the result of unforeseen or unpreventable circumstances.
- e) An employee who does not wish to return to employment following maternity, parental or adoption leave must give four weeks written notice of intention to terminate employment.

The Director, Human Resources may require the employee to furnish a certificate of service from an officer of the Court before authorizing payment under this Clause. The employee shall come to work or be excused from work on the following basis:

- if the employee is required to attend for 4 hours or less (including a reasonable amount of travel time), then the employee is required to come to work for the balance of the shift;

34.00 LEAVE OF ABSENCE WITHOUT PAY

Applications for leave in excess of 5 working days must be approved by the supervisor and submitted, in writing, to the Director, Human Resources for final approval. Leave of absence shall be without pay and may be granted in cases of serious illness or accident to the employee's immediate family, moving households, time off in lieu of paid vacation for hourly-paid employees, or for special reasons outlined by the employee. In extenuating circumstances FAX applications to extend the leave of absence may be made by the employee to their supervisor.

There shall be no interruption in the employee's benefits for a leave of one calendar month or less.

No leave shall be granted to an employee to serve a jail sentence.

35.00 CLOTHING ENTITLEMENT

The Employer agrees to provide the employee with coveralls or other protective clothing free of charge, where such clothing is required to be worn by the employee as a condition of employment, and job postings for support staff positions shall indicate such requirements. Where a special uniform with the Employer insignia is required to be worn as a condition of employment, the Employer agrees to provide such clothing free of charge to the employee. In those cases where coveralls, protective clothing or insignia uniforms require cleaning, the Employer shall provide such cleaning (see Article 28.01- Protective Clothing and Equipment.) A cleaning allowance of $2.50 per pay period will be issued to eligible employees. This allowance is for cleaning where there is no other form of cleaning provided.

In those cases where otherwise generic clothing is required, the Employer may provide, at its discretion, such clothing or a cash allowance or partial reimbursement for actual expenditures incurred by the employee.

36.00 GRIEVANCES

36.01 DEFINITION OF GRIEVANCE

A grievance is any difference arising between the Employer and one or more employees covered by this Agreement, or between the Employer and the Union, regarding the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement or any question as to whether any difference is arbitral. Such differences must be dealt with progressively in the following manner without stoppage of work or refusal to perform work except as provided pursuant to the Occupational Health and Safety Act in respect of an imminent danger to the health or safety of the employee.

No grievance shall be considered except under the following procedure.

36.02 GRIEVANCE HANDLING

No grievance handling shall take place at a work site or involve an employee during working hours without the required permission of the Supervisor or designate responsible for the work area(s).

36.03 INFORMAL DISCUSSIONS

Where conflict occurs between an employee and their supervisor, the Employer and the Union encourage the employee and the supervisor to seek resolution of the situation through discussion before a formal grievance is filed.

36.04 GRIEVANCE - STEP 1

The employee is required to file a written grievance with their supervisor and the Director, Human Resources. A grievance must contain a complete and full statement of the difference pursuant to a specific clause of this Agreement and must state the particular relief requested on behalf of the grievor. Grievances shall be submitted on a form satisfactory to the Union and the Employer. Grievances not submitted within five (5) work days of the action giving rise to the grievance or five (5) work days from the time that the action should reasonably have been known to the grievor shall not be considered. By mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, a grievance regarding the suspension or dismissal of an employee may commence at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

At the request of either party, a meeting shall be held at this Step. If a meeting is held, each party may have in attendance those persons (not to exceed two (2) in number) whom it feels will assist in resolving the difference. However, the Parties will inform each other no later than two (2) work days prior to the meeting whom they plan on having in attendance. If a meeting is requested at this step, it shall be held within five (5) work days of receipt of the written request for a meeting.

The supervisor shall provide a written response to the grievor within ten (10) work days of receipt of the written grievance or within ten (10) work days of the meeting if one is held.

36.05 GRIEVANCE - STEP 2

In the event that satisfaction still cannot be obtained, the employee shall within ten (10) work days of receiving the decision, forward the grievance to the most senior manager, or designate, within the division. At the request of either party, a meeting shall be held at this Step. If a meeting is held, the manager or their nominee may be accompanied by a representative from Human Resources. The employee may choose to be accompanied by a union representative. If a meeting is requested at this step, it shall be held within five (5) work days of receipt of the written request for a meeting. The decision must be communicated in writing to the employee within seven (7) work days of the date that the senior manager received the grievance, or within seven (7) work days of the meeting if one is held.

If the dispute is not resolved satisfactorily in Step 2, the initiator of the grievance (i.e., the Employer or the Union) may, within 15 work days of the decision at Step 2, give notice of its desire to submit the grievance to Arbitration for final and binding settlement on all parties.

The notice shall contain a statement of the grievance in the form submitted at Step 2 and the name of the initiator's appointee to the Grievance Arbitration Board. The recipient of the notice shall, within seven (7) calendar days inform the other party of the name of its appointee to the Grievance Arbitration Board. The two appointees so selected shall, within seven (7) calendar days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson.

If the recipient of the notice fails to appoint an appointee within the time limit indicated above, the appointment shall be made by the Director of Mediation Services upon the request of either party. If the two appointees fail to agree upon a Chairperson within the time limit, the appointment shall be made by the Director of Mediation Services upon the request of either party.

The Grievance Arbitration Board shall hear and determine the matter and shall issue an award in writing and the decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it. The decision of the majority is the award of the Grievance Arbitration Board, but if there is no majority, the decision of the Chairperson governs and it shall be deemed to be the award of the Grievance Arbitration Board.

The parties may by mutual agreement elect Arbitration by a single Arbitrator under the provisions of the Alberta Labour Relations Code. If the parties are unable to mutually agree to finalization by a single Arbitrator, the grievance shall be settled by a Grievance Arbitration Board as provided for above.

Each party to the difference shall bear the expense of its respective appointee to the Grievance Arbitration Board and the two parties shall bear equally the expenses of the Chairperson.

It is agreed by the parties that the Arbitration Board may not by its decision alter, amend, add to or delete from the terms and conditions or the published wage and benefit programs, of this Agreement.

36.07 GRIEVANCE MEDIATION

When notice has been given of the desire to submit a grievance to arbitration, either party may request of the other party that the difference be referred to Mediation. If both parties agree to Mediation, they shall jointly forward a letter to the Director of Mediation Services, Department of Labour, requesting Grievance Mediation, or they may choose such other form of mediation as may be agreed upon.

36.08 POLICY AND GROUP GRIEVANCES

The Employer or the Union may initiate a policy grievance. A policy grievance is a difference concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement which seeks to enforce an obligation of the Employer to the Union, or the Union to the Employer.

The Union shall have the right to process "Group Grievances." A Group Grievance is one initiated by more than one (1) Employee providing that all Employees who are a party to the grievance are grieving the identical issue.

A policy grievance shall not be brought for remedies or relief that affects individual employees which can be grieved through Article 36.04.

The griever (employee, Union or the Employer) must initiate this policy grievance within seven (7) working days of the act causing the grievance. The grievance shall be presented in writing and must contain:

- a) a summary of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance;
- b) the provision(s) of the Agreement considered violated;
- c) the particulars of the remedy sought.

In the case of the Union grieving the actions of the Employer, the grievance shall be addressed to the Director of Human Resources. In the case of the Employer grieving the actions of the Union, the grievance shall be addressed to the President of the Local. The parties shall meet within fourteen (14) workdays of the written grievance and the other party shall reply to the aggrieved party within fourteen (14) workdays of the grievance meeting. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved, the grievance shall be referred to Step 3 of the Grievance Procedure outlined above within fourteen (14) work days of the reply.

36.09 TIME LIMITS

In the event the initiator of the grievance fails to follow the procedure and time limits established in the steps of the Grievance Procedure, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned.

When the recipient of the grievance fails to respond within the time limits prescribed in the Grievance Procedure, the grievance shall advance to the next step of the Grievance Procedure.

The time limits may be extended by mutual agreement between the Director, Human Resources and the President of the Local provided that such extension is requested, in writing, prior to the expiry of the time allowed.

36.10 WORK DAYS

For the purposes of the Grievance Procedures, work days are defined as days the Human Resources Department is open and operating.

37.00 STAFF TRAINING

The Employer and the Union are committed to encouraging the continuous development of employees. The employee's supervisor shall assess the training needs required by the employee where jobs change and/or the technologies used for the job change. The Employer commits to providing the training required and the employee commits to taking the identified training. The training may be provided as part of a larger Employer group or may be individual. It is understood that in order to provide the required training, the training must be available and affordable.

As part of any performance review, the supervisor will assess and document the training and professional development needs of the employee to improve how the employee performs their job. At any other time, both the employee and/or the supervisor may discuss the training and professional development needs the employee requires.

An employee shall not suffer a loss of regular earnings for time spent in training required by the Employer.

37.01 TRADES AND APPRENTICES

The Employer and the Union agree that all trades positions are governed by the appropriate trade regulations.

The Employer shall endeavour to employ and train trade apprentices as the operational requirements permit.

Employees in the Apprenticeship Program shall be required to attend Technical School for the period specified for that particular trade. During this time, employees are entitled to apply for Employment Insurance benefits. Upon submission of evidence to the Employer of remuneration from the Employment Insurance Commission (EIC), the Employer shall top up the employee's weekly wage while they are receiving EI benefits during Apprenticeship training to 95% of their current weekly wage. The Employer shall consider the employee on a Leave of Absence With Pay.

Upon submission of evidence of remuneration from the Employment Insurance Commission (EIC), the Employer shall also reimburse the employee 95% of their weekly wage to offset the two week waiting period the employee must serve prior to receiving EI benefits.

The exception to this relates to apprentices who fail to complete a level. Should their supervisor agree to the employee's continuing in the program, the employee shall not receive any remuneration from the Employer when a level of schooling is repeated. The employee shall be considered to be on a Leave of Absence Without Pay.

Employees participating in an Apprenticeship program shall be required to agree to the terms defined in The Employer's Apprenticeship Program Policy and Agreement.

37.02 APPRENTICE PAY

The Employer shall pay Apprentices the following percentages of the applicable Journeyman base rate which are in accordance with the Alberta Apprenticeship Act:

Apprentice Level	1st	2nd	3rd	4th either party.

Subject: PAY ADMINISTRATION

1. Job Evaluation

The Employer may alter or create job descriptions in accordance with operational requirements. Where there is an incumbent(s), the employee(s) will be provided with a copy of the job description. Within seven (7) days of receiving Executive Officer (or delegate) approval of the evaluation request, the job description and related materials, will be submitted to the Job Evaluation Committee for assignment to an appropriate pay level.

When an employee's assigned duties and responsibilities have been altered sufficiently to justify a review, the employee or the employee's supervisor may request an evaluation review. Requests for review shall be based on changes made to the job description and submitted to the Job Evaluation Committee. Achievement of the maximum salary for a given classification is not the singular justification for reclassification to higher level.

In the event that an employee believes that the job description does not accurately reflect the duties of the job, the employee must first bring the matter to the attention of the supervisor. If the matter is not resolved by the supervisor, the union, on behalf of the employee, may forward it to the Human Resources Department for resolution.

2. Job Evaluation Committee

The Job Evaluation Committee shall consist of a total of six (6) members, three (3) appointed by the Employer and three (3) employees appointed by the Union. A minimum of two (2) members per side shall be a quorum for the committee. All matters brought before the committee shall be treated with the highest degree of confidentiality and shall not be discussed by individual committee members with other employees or supervisory staff. The members of the committee shall evaluate each position in a manner free of bias or of the influence of their respective constituents.

Within thirty (30) calendar days following the submission of a job description and related materials to the Job Evaluation Committee, the committee will meet to review the job description.

If the committee reaches consensus respecting the pay level of a position, its decision shall be final and binding except in the event of a successful appeal by the employee or employee's supervisor as provided below.

3. Appeals

In the event that the Job Evaluation Committee is unable to reach consensus concerning the appropriate pay level assignment of a position, the matter shall be resolved through the grievance procedure commencing at Step 2.

In the event that a non-probationary employee, or the employee's supervisor, believes that a position has not been properly evaluated by the Job Evaluation Committee, the matter may be appealed to the most senior manager, or designate, of the division in which the position in question is found. If the manager concurs with the decision of the Job Evaluation Committee, the appeal shall have failed and the decision of the Job Evaluation Committee shall be final and binding. If the manager concurs with the employee or supervisor, the matter shall be referred back to the Job Evaluation Committee accompanied by the manager's comments and reasons for supporting the appeal. After considering the manager's comments and reasons, the subsequent decision of the Job Evaluation Committee with respect to the appeal shall be final and binding.

An appeal must be filed, in writing, within seven (7) calendar days of the date on which the employee and the employee's supervisor are notified of the Job Evaluation Committee's decision.

4. New Positions

A new position will not be eligible for appeal until six (6) months following the assignment of the position to a pay level.

5. Pay Rate Schedule

As per pay schedule A.

6. Starting Pay Rate

- a) a new employee's starting pay rate may be established at any value at or between the Probation rate and the rate which is the midpoint between the Base and Maximum rates of the applicable pay level.
- b) a casual employee's starting pay rate may be established at any value at or between the Probation rate and the rate which is the mid-point between the Base and Maximum rates of the applicable pay level.

7. Pay Progression

(a) End of Probation Increases – variable

Employees hired at any pay rate at or between the Probation and Base rate for the Pay Level shall receive a pay increase to the Base rate of the pay level upon successful completion of the probation period.

(b) Service Increases – 4%

i) Salaried Employees – awarded annually on the anniversary of the date the employee's assignment to the current pay level became effective. The value of the increment will be reduced on a prorata basis for each full month of absence due to an unpaid leave or layoff during the 12 month service period.

ii) Hourly Employees - awarded annually on the anniversary of the date the employee's assignment to the current pay level became effective. The value of the increment will be reduced by 50% if the employee worked fewer than 1000 hours during the 12 month service period, and to 25% if the employee worked fewer than 500 hours during the 12 month service period.

8. Salary Progression Date

If the increase in pay as a result of a promotion, upward re-evaluation or upward transfer amounts to 4% or less, the employee's pay progression date shall not be changed. If the increase amounts to more than 4%, a new pay progression date shall be established in accordance with the effective date of the re-evaluation.

9. Downward Re-evaluation:

If a position is re-evaluated downward, the incumbent in the position:

- a) whose pay rate exceeds the maximum of the lower pay level, shall be red-circled and shall not be entitled to any general increases until such time as the maximum rate exceeds the employee's pay rate;
- b) whose pay rate is equal to or less than the maximum of the lower pay level, shall be placed in the lower pay level and be entitled to salary progression and general increases.

10. Lateral Transfers

A transfer to another job in the same pay level – no change in pay rate and no change in effective date.

11. Upward Transfer

A move to a new job in a higher pay level which applies a significantly different set of skills and responsibilities - pay rate shall be set at an appropriate starting rate at or between probation and midpoint of the range.

12. Downward Transfer

When an employee is transferred to a new job in a lower pay level, which is not for disciplinary reasons, the employee's pay rate shall remain unchanged. However, when an employee initiates a downward transfer, the pay rate shall be set at the appropriate starting rate and a new pay progression date shall be established in accordance with the effective date of incumbency in the position.

13. Effective Date of Re-evaluation Decision

When a position is re-evaluated to a higher pay level, the effective date will be the date of the change of duties/responsibilities to a maximum retroactivity of three (3) months. If that date cannot be clearly identified, the effective date shall then be the date the request approved by the Executive Officer (or delegate) for submission to the Job Evaluation Committee.

When a position is re-evaluated to a lower pay level, the effective date will be the first day of the pay period immediately following the date of the evaluation decision.

When an employee resigns and leaves the Employer, any outstanding requests for re-evaluation within the one hundred and twenty (120) calendar day's period prior to the effective date of such resignation shall be deemed to have been withdrawn. Furthermore, appeals of evaluation decisions in respect of such requests shall also be deemed to have been withdrawn.
