PREAMBLE

It is the intent of the parties:

- (a) To work together supporting a common commitment to assisting individuals and families who are experiencing the effects of family violence to work towards a lifestyle free-of-abuse.
- (b) To maintain harmonious relations and settle conditions of employment between the Employer and the Union.
- (c) To recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in matters pertaining to terms and conditions of employment.
- (d) To develop and maintain the best possible service delivery to clients.
- (e) To encourage efficiency in operations.
- (f) To promote morale, well-being and security of Employees.

ARTICLE 1 - DEFINITIONS

1.01 For the purposes of this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) A word used in the singular may also apply in the plural.
- (b) "Employer" means the Camrose Women's Shelter Society.
- (c) "Employee" means an individual covered by the terms of this Agreement.
- (d) "Full-time Employee" means an Employee who works in a position designated as a Full-time position by the Employer with regular schedule of Full-time hours for her position.
- (e) "Part-time Employee" means an Employee who works in a position designated as a Part-time position by the Employer with scheduled hours of work less than the weekly hours of a Full-time Employee. A Part-time Employee may also be required to be available for call-in work.
- (f) "Casual Employee" means an Employee who works in a position designated as a casual position by the Employer and who works on a call in basis and may be scheduled on an incidental basis to cover shifts as determined by the Executive Director, Program Coordinator or designate.

- (g) "Union" means the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 1425.
- (h) "Union Representative/Steward" means an Employee who is elected or appointed by the Employees covered by this Agreement to act on their behalf.
- (i) "working day" means any day on which the Employee is normally expected to be on duty at their place of employment.
- (j) "scheduled shifts" means any shift that is written on the posted schedule.
- (k) "Regular Employee" means a Full-time or Part-time Employee who works scheduled shifts and who works in a position designated as either Full-time or Part-time.
- (l) A "week" shall be defined as Monday to Sunday.

1.02 Seniority

"Seniority" for regular Full-time and Part-time Employees is defined as the length of continuous service in the bargaining unit from date of hire. Seniority shall operate on a bargaining unit wide basis. An Employee's seniority date shall be continued during an approved Leave of Absence.

Casual workers will have seniority within the casual pool calculated by the number of hours worked from the date of hire.

A casual Employee achieving a regular position shall have seniority credited back to the Employee's number of hours worked from the date of hire as a casual Employee.

(a) Loss of Seniority

All accumulated seniority shall be lost and the employment relationship terminated in any of the following events:

- (i) discharge for just cause, without reinstatement;
- (ii) resignation;
- (iii) lay-off in excess of twelve (12) months.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION and NEGOTIATIONS

- 2.01 The Employer recognized the Union as the sole bargaining agent for all Employees covered by (Certificate No. 65-2005) except those Employees excluded by the Labour Relations Board, or by written agreement between the parties. Positions that have been agreed to be excluded from the bargaining unit include: Executive Director, Program Coordinator, Administrative Assistant, practicum students, including STEP students, Volunteer Coordinator, Family Support Coordinator, Outreach Coordinator, cook, housekeeper, temporarily funded out of scope positions.

2.02 No Other Agreements

No Employee shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement with the Employer or their representatives, which may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

2.03 This Agreement applies to Casual Employees, except for Articles 12; 13.04:15; 16.01 - 16.05; 16.07; 17.01(a); 17.02; 17.03; 18; 21; 22.

ARTICLE 3 - NO DISCRIMINATION

3.01 The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination by reason of Union membership status or activity in the Union.

3.02 The Employer shall meet the expectations described in the Canadian Human Rights Act and the Alberta Human Rights, Citizenship and Multiculturalism Act.

ARTICLE 4 - MANAGEMENT RECOGNITION

4.01 It is the exclusive right of the Employer to operate and manage the business in all respects unless otherwise provided by this Collective Agreement. The Union recognizes that all functions, rights, powers and authority which the Employer has not specifically abridged, delegated or modified by this Agreement is retained by the Employer. The question of whether any of these rights is limited by this agreement shall be decided through the grievance and arbitration procedure after discussion has taken place.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION STEWARDS

5.01 The Employer recognizes Union Stewards as official representatives of the Union. The names of Union Stewards will be supplied in writing to the Employer as soon as possible after election or appointment.

5.02 Whenever possible, Stewards' duties shall be performed at times that will not interfere with services to clients. Stewards will not leave their work to investigate or to process a grievance without the prior approval of the Executive Director or delegate. Such approval will not be unreasonably denied.

- 5.03 Subject to Article 5.02, where an Employee is granted approval to perform Steward duties during an Employee's normal working hours, such reasonable time off shall be without loss of pay for Employees involved in discussions related to the processing of grievances, the investigation of complaints arising out of the Collective Agreement or during disciplinary interviews when Union representation is requested within Camrose Women's Shelter Society business.
- 5.04 The Union shall have the right to have the assistance of representatives of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when dealing or negotiating with the Employer. Representatives of the Union must obtain the prior permission of the Executive Director before attending upon the Employer's premises. Permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION MEMBERSHIP AND DUES CHECKOFF

- 6.01 All Employees of the Employer, shall, as a condition of continuing employment, become and remain members in good standing of the Union, according to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Union. As a condition of employment, all new Employees shall become and remain members in good standing of the Union within thirty (30) days of employment. The Employer shall deduct from every Employee any dues, initiation fees, or assessments levied by the Union on its members.
- 6.02 Employees covered by this Agreement shall be required to pay Union dues. The Employer shall deduct each month the amount of the Union dues as set by the Union from time-to-time from pay of Employees covered by this Agreement. Initiation fees or assessments shall be deducted when the Employer receives and individually signed Employee authorization for such deductions.
- 6.03 Deductions shall be made from each payroll and shall be forwarded to CUPE National not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month accompanied by a list of the names and classifications of Employees from whose wages the deductions have been made. A copy of this list shall be forwarded by the Employer to the Canadian Union of Public Employees Local 1425.

Once a year, on or before January 30th, the Employer will provide the Union with a list of individual Employee's mailing addresses; unless an Employee indicates in writing she does not wish to have this information provided to the Union.

- 6.04 The Union shall advise the Employer, in writing, of any change in the amount of dues to be deducted from the Employees covered by this Agreement. Such notice shall be communicated to the Employer at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of change.

- 6.05 The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article.
- 6.06 Upon commencing employment, the Employee's supervisor will inform the new Employee of their Union steward or representative, who shall provide the new Employee with a copy of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - LABOUR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

- 7.01 No Employee or group of Employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without proper written authorization of the Union. In representing an Employee or group of Employees, an elected or appointed representative of the Union shall be the spokesperson. In order that this may be carried out, the Union will supply the Employer with the names of its Officers and Stewards.

Employees covered by the Collective Agreement have the right to Union representation. It is the responsibility of the Employee to arrange for this representation if they so choose.

- 7.02 The Employer will provide specific bulletin board space for the use of the Union at the Employer's premises that is accessible to Employees. Material other than meeting notices, educational material, and the list of Union Officers and Union Stewards must be approved by the Executive Director or designate prior to posting on the bulletin board; such approval will not be unreasonably denied.
- 7.03 Joint Consultation
 - (a) The Employer and the Union are committed to joint consultation and information sharing on matters of mutual interest. A Joint Consultation Committee shall be formed for this purpose and shall function for the term of this agreement. The Employer representatives shall be two (2) representatives appointed from the Board of Directors and/or the Executive Director. The Union shall appoint two (2) Employee representatives to the Committee. A CUPE National Representative shall have the right to attend and advise the Employee representatives at such meetings.
 - (b) The Joint Consultation Committee shall meet at least twice (2 X) per year and may meet more often by mutual agreement of the parties.

- (c) The Joint Consultation Committee shall not deal with interpretation of this Agreement or the resolution of grievances pursuant to Article 8. The Joint Consultation Committee is a forum for information sharing and cannot make decisions. It can, however, make recommendations.
- (d) All budgeted (funded) positions under this agreement will be disclosed in writing internally annually for information purposes to the Union.

ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.01 A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement.

8.02 Grievance Procedure

At each step of the grievance procedure, the Grievor shall have the right to be present and have representation by the Union. An earnest effort shall be made by all parties to settle grievances fairly and promptly in the following manner:

Step One

For the purpose of Article 8 – Grievance Procedure a working day shall be Monday to Friday and excluding Saturday, Sunday and Statutory holidays.

If an Employee or a group of Employees has a grievance, the Employee or group of Employees will submit, to her immediate supervisor, a written statement of the grievance within twenty (20) working days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance.

The grievance, when presented in writing, must be signed by the Employee or group of Employees and the Union, and shall contain:

- (a) A summary of circumstances giving rise to the grievance; and
- (b) The particulars of the remedy sought.

The immediate supervisor shall meet with the Grievor(s) and the Steward within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance and shall render her decision, in writing, within ten (10) working days of this meeting.

Step Two

Failing satisfactory settlement being reached in Step One, within ten (10) working days of receipt of the decision in Step One, the grievance may be referred, in writing, to the Executive Director. The Executive Director shall render a decision in writing to the Union within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the grievance.

Step Three

Failing satisfactory settlement being reached in Step Two, within ten (10) working days of receipt of the decision in Step Two, the grievance may be referred, in writing, to the Personnel Committee. The Employer shall appoint up to three (3) representatives to the Personnel Committee. The Personnel Committee shall convene a meeting where both parties make representation. The Committee will make their best effort to resolve the grievance within ten (10) working days of submission of grievance to Step Three. If all three (3) members of the Personnel Committee agree on a resolution to the grievance, their decision shall be put before their respective principals for a final and binding decision.

Step Four

The Employer and the Union agree to consider grievance mediation as an alternative disputes resolution mechanism for those issues that may be referred to arbitration. Grievance mediation would only be entered into if both parties agree and the results of such mediation shall not be unilaterally imposed upon by either party. Both parties shall equally bear the total cost of the mediator.

Step Five

Failing satisfactory settlement being reached in Step Three, within ten (10) working days of receipt of the decision in Step Three, the grievance may be referred, in writing, to arbitration by either party.

8.03 Policy Grievance

A policy grievance may be initiated by the Employer or the Union where the dispute involves a question of general application or interpretation of the Agreement. A policy grievance shall not include any matter that could have been subject of a grievance by an Employee or a group of Employees. A Policy Grievance may be filed at Step 2.

8.04 Arbitration

- (a) The Union and the Employer shall endeavor to agree on a single Arbitrator within fifteen (15) working days of the notice to submit the grievance to arbitration.
- (b) If the Union and the Employer fail to jointly appoint a single Arbitrator within the time limits, the Director of Mediation Services shall be asked to appoint an Arbitrator in accordance with the Alberta Labour Relations Code.
- (c) The Employer and the Union shall bear equally the total costs of the Arbitrator.

- (d) The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final, binding and enforceable on all parties affected. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions or make any decision contrary to the provisions of this Agreement.
- (e) Both parties may agree to convene a Board of Arbitration rather than a single arbitrator. Should they agree to do so, both parties shall name a nominee who shall then attempt to agree upon a Chairperson of the Board of Arbitration.
- (f) In the event either party fails to appoint a nominee within the time permitted by this Article, or the nominees fail to appoint a Chairperson within the time permitted by this Article, then either party may apply to the Director of Mediation Services, Alberta Labour, to appoint a nominee or Chairperson, as the case may be.
- (g) Each party will bear the expenses of its nominee to the Board of Arbitration; the parties will share equally the fees and expenses of the Chairperson.

8.05 General

The time limits specified in both the grievance and Arbitration procedures may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.

ARTICLE 9 - DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- 9.01 No Employee shall be disciplined or dismissed without just cause. In cases of discipline, up to and including discharge, the burden of proof or just cause shall rest with the Employer.
- 9.02 When an Employee is to be disciplined, the Employee may request a Union Representative to be present at any meeting with the Employer.

The Employer shall advise the Employee in advance of any disciplinary meeting/interview and permit time for the Employee to arrange for Union representation.
- 9.03 The Employer will provide the Union copies of all discipline letters prior to placing them in the Employee's file.
- 9.04 When an Employee is issued a letter of discipline, the Employee will sign and date the document solely for acknowledgement of receipt of the document.
- 9.05 The Employer will adhere to the principles of progressive discipline.

- 9.06 Employees will receive a performance review annually. The Employee's personnel file will be reviewed at this time. All information to be expunged from the file that is either 18 months old or used on the performance review will be given to the Employee to dispose of.

ARTICLE 10 – WAGES, JOB CLASSIFICATIONS AND RECLASSIFICATION

10.01 Salaries and Payment of Wages

- (a) The Employer shall pay salaries and wages earned according to wage schedules attached to and forming part of this Agreement, bi-weekly. On each payday, each Employee shall be provided with an itemized statement of:

Basic hourly rate of pay
Wages earned
Overtime earned
Other supplementary pay
Statutory deductions
Health Benefit Premiums

- (b) An Employee's basic rate of pay shall be established in accordance with the Wage Schedules attached to and forming part of this agreement.

10.02 Wage Grid Progression

- (a) A Regular Employee shall advance to the next step on the pay grid upon their anniversary date of hire.

Casual Employees shall advance to the next step on the pay grid every two (2) years.

- (b) Hours of work shall be inclusive of all worked hours, overtime and vacation leave and exclusive of sick leave, named holidays and other paid or unpaid leaves of absence.

A new Employee shall commence employment at Step 1 in the applicable pay range. However, salary recognition may be granted for job specific and relevant work experience satisfactory to the Employer provided not more than two (2) years have lapsed since such experience was obtained.

10.03 Education Upgrading

- (a) The Employer shall make efforts to accommodate an Employee choosing to undertake job relevant educational upgrading.

- (b) Training/Staff Development – All Employees will receive sufficient job related technical and program training to maintain the competency of their skills and keep up to date on new ones. The Employer will provide course choices, where possible dates and times, will be made available at least one week in advance to Employees. No Employee shall be required to be recalled or break up their vacation entitlement to accommodate training programs. Employees may request other work-related courses or workshops upon written request and prior approval of the Employer, approval will be given based on funding availability. Upon successful completion of these pre-approved courses, the Employee will be reimbursed costs. The Employer will cover the cost of all mandatory training for Full-time, Part-time and casual Employees and will provide Full-time and Part-time Employees with other training opportunities, including in-services, certification programs, conferences, etc., at no cost to Employees.

Change in Classification

10.04 Temporary Assignment

- (a) An Employee temporarily assigned by the Employer for a period of five (5) days or more, to a higher paying position/classification shall be paid in addition to her basic hourly rate of pay, the difference between her current rate of pay and the same step in the pay grid of the higher pay schedule and pay range.
- (b) When an Employee is assigned temporarily by Management to a position paying a lower rate, her rate shall not be reduced. Long-term transfers by the Employer will be red-circled at the higher rate of pay. When an Employee applies internally on a position with a different rate of pay and is successful in achieving the position, the Employee will receive the rate of pay attached to that position.
- (c) Hours worked in the temporary position shall be credited for wage grid progression in the Employee's regular position.

10.05 New Classification

If the Employer establishes a new job classification within the bargaining unit, the Employer may set an interim rate of pay. The Union will be notified of the new classification and the interim rate of pay, in writing. If the Union does not agree with the interim rate of pay, the Union shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of receiving notification, advise the Employer that it wishes to negotiate the rate of pay for the new classification. The parties shall meet to negotiate the rate of pay for the new classification.

In the event the parties are unable to achieve mutual agreement on the rate of pay for the new classification, the arbitration process may be implemented in accordance with Article 8.04.

10.06 Reclassification

When the duties or functions of work in any classification are substantially changed or increased or where the Union and/or an Employee feels she is unfairly or incorrectly classified, the rate of pay shall be subject to negotiations between the Employer and the Union.

If the parties are unable to agree on the reclassification and/or rate of pay of the job in question, such dispute shall be submitted to grievance and arbitration. The new rate shall become retroactive to the time the grievance was first filed by the Union.

ARTICLE 11 - HOURS OF WORK

11.01 (a) It is understood and agreed that hours of work must provide for continuous operations and Employees may be required to work various shifts throughout the twenty-four (24) hour period of the day and the seven (7) day period of the week.

(b) Definition of Shift Cycle
A shift cycle shall be defined as (4) four consecutive weeks

11.02 Hours of Work

(a) The first shift of the day shall be that shift on which the majority of hours fall after midnight.

(b) Full-time Employees
Regular hours of work for all Full-time Employees shall be between eight (8) and ten (10) hours per day and forty (40) hours per week averaged over a shift cycle.

(c) Part-time Employees
Part-time Employees shall be regularly scheduled at least twenty (20) hours per week but less than Full-time hours of work and optional hours, for Part-time Employees, may be scheduled for short shifts from three to nine (3-9) hours, to meet emergent needs of the shelter.

11.03 Scheduling

(a) General

Scheduling shall provide for:

(i) days off shall be consecutive, with a minimum of two (2) days;

- (ii) not more than six (6) consecutive days of work;
- (iii) an equal distribution of weekends off in the cycle of shifts for Regular staff;
- (iv) not less than ten (10) hours rest between shifts;
- (v) split shifts cannot be scheduled.

Example of a Split Shift: Employee starts at 8:00 AM and works until 12:00 PM. Then the Employee goes home and returns at 4:00 PM and works until 8:00 PM.

The schedule must be posted by the 15th of the preceding month. Where possible, backfilling of positions will be done for all known vacancies by the 15th of the preceding month as well.

For the purposes of this Article a weekend shall be defined as the night shift Friday to the hours of the morning shift Monday.

Whenever possible, an Employee will be given at least twenty-four (24) hour notice of a shift change.

11.04 Modified Hours of Work

Modified hours of work may be implemented where mutually agreed between the Employer and the Union. Modified work schedules shall be in writing.

11.05 Rest and Meal Periods

(a) Crisis Intervention Worker

Two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid rest breaks during the shift. One (1) in the first half and one (1) in the second half of the day and a one-half (1/2) hour paid meal break. Breaks shall not be combined together without approval by the Coordinator.

Employees working five (5) hours or less are entitled to one (1) paid fifteen (15) minute rest break.

Employees are required to remain on the work premises and to be available for duty during paid breaks unless otherwise agreed between the Employer and the Union. If more than two (2) CIW's are on site when a CIW is having their break, the CIW can leave the premises during their break if approved by the Coordinator.

(b) Program Staff

Two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid rest breaks during the shift. One in the first half and one in the second half of the day and one (1) thirty (30) minute unpaid meal break.

Employees working five (5) hours or less are entitled to one (1) paid fifteen (15) minute rest break.

Employees are not required to remain on the work premises or to be available for duty during unpaid breaks unless otherwise agreed between the Employer and the Employee.

Designated breaks will be established where possible. If the Employee is not able to take their unpaid meal break during the shift an alternate meal break shall be scheduled. If that is not possible, Article 14.03 shall apply. The Employer will provide a designated place for staff to take their breaks.

11.06 Staff Meetings and Training

The Employer recognizes that it has a responsibility to encourage development of staff capability. To this end, the Employer agrees to:

- (a) hold regular staff meetings which are mandatory and paid time for Full-time and Part-time staff. Staff meetings are optional and paid for casual staff.
- (b) arrange opportunities for Employees to take part in professional development, continuing education or in-service training sessions. Attendance at such sessions is at the discretion of the Employer and must be approved in advance by the Executive Director or designate, and may be granted with or without pay.

If any of the above are mandatory, and outside regular hours of work, Employees shall be paid at overtime rate of pay if the criteria for overtime, per Article 14.02 is met, for attendance at such meetings or training sessions, when in attendance.

Employees working a shift that does not allow a minimum of ten (10) hours rest prior or after the mandatory meeting and/or training sessions, shall have the option of attending.

11.07 Shift Exchange

Employees may exchange shifts amongst themselves provided that the exchange is agreed to in writing on the approved form between the affected Employees.

Such exchange shall be recorded on the shift schedule for payroll recording and will not be deemed a violation of the scheduling provisions of this Article, nor shall it result in any extra cost for the Employer.

Approval of shift exchange shall not be unreasonably denied.

11.08 Additional Hours of Work

(a) Minimum Work - Casual Employees

A Casual Employee may be deemed to have terminated their employment unless the Employee has proper cause or prior Coordinator or designate approval, unless a minimum of one (1) shift per month is worked.

(b) Additional hours of work shall be offered to Part-time Employees. The most senior Employee shall pick one shift followed by the next senior and on through the shifts until all eligible hours for Part-time Employees are chosen provided that the absorption of the additional shifts does not put the employee in an overtime position.

(c) Casual Employees who have indicated availability shall be offered additional hours of work on a fair rotational basis. Casual Employees may be scheduled for short shifts from three – nine (3-9) hours, to meet emergent needs of the shelter.

The onus shall be on the Employee to keep the Coordinator informed of availability.

11.09 Give Away of Shifts

In any calendar year, Employees may give away their scheduled shifts in accordance to the following:

- (a) Give away shifts shall be at no additional costs to the Employer.
- (b) The responsibility of finding operational shift coverage is with the Employee.
- (c) The Employee accepting the shift shall be responsible for covering the shift.
- (d) This give away shift has to be requested in writing in advance and using the same procedures for regular shift exchanges.
- (e) Approval of shift give away shall not be unreasonably denied, as long as Article 15.01 (d) is met.
- (f) Full-time – Stat Holidays Shift Exchange and Shift Give Away to Part-time and Casual Employees

When a shift that is being exchanged or given away is a stat holiday; the Employee giving away the shift shall be paid for the day at their regular rate of pay and have the day off. The Employee working the shift shall be paid at time and a half (1 ½) plus 5% of their average daily wage for the previous four (4) week period pursuant to the Alberta Employment Standards Code and Regulation.

ARTICLE 12 - PROBATIONARY PERIOD

12.01 All new Full-time Employees covered by this Agreement shall serve a probationary period of four hundred and eighty (480) hours worked from date of hire.

All new part-time Employees covered by this Agreement shall serve a probationary period of four hundred and eighty (480) hours worked from date of hire.

All casual Employees covered by this Agreement shall serve a probationary period of four hundred and eighty (480) hours of work from date of hire.

12.02 The probationary period may be extended by the Employer for a maximum of an additional one hundred and sixty (160) hours of work.

12.03 If, in the opinion of the Employer, a new Employee on probation is found to be unsatisfactory, she may be terminated without notice and without recourse to the grievance procedure.

12.04 In the event an Employee changes classification during the probationary period, she will be required to complete a new probationary period commencing on the date of transfer to the new classification.

12.05 Orientation and Appraisal

Probationary Employees will be provided with training and orientation for the duties of their job classification.

Probationary Employees will be provided with feedback of their performance prior to the conclusion of working 240 hours and will be informed of their progress or any deficiencies in performance.

ARTICLE 13 - ALLOWANCES, PREMIUMS, AND FEES

13.01 Night Shift Premium

A night shift premium of three dollars ($3.00) per hour will be paid to an Employee for night shift, as defined in Article 11 Hours of Work.

Weekend Premium

A weekend premium of two dollars ($2.00) per hour shall be paid, in addition to shift premium, if applicable, for the hours of the night shift Friday to hours of the morning shift Monday.

13.02 Criminal Checks

Regular criminal checks are a condition of continued employment and must be submitted in a timely fashion and may be requested at the discretion of the Employer. The cost of criminal checks for Employees shall be reimbursed upon submitting a receipt to the Executive Director. The cost of criminal checks will not be reimbursed to new Employees and are a condition of hire.

13.03 Training

A current Employee shall be reimbursed for the cost of or provided with re-certification at no cost for required CPR, First Aid, and Applied Suicide Intervention and Prevention Training qualifications upon completion of their probationary period and is a condition of continued employment.

13.04 Call Back

A Regular Part-time or Full-time Employee who is called back and required to return to work outside of her regular hours shall be paid for any one (1) call at either:

- (i) the overtime rate as specified in Article 14 for the actual time spent; or
- (ii) three (3) hours at the basic rate of pay; whichever is greater.

ARTICLE 14 - OVERTIME

14.01 All overtime must be authorized in advance by the Employer.

14.02 Overtime shall be defined as time worked in conjunction with and in excess of regularly scheduled hours as per Article 11 Hours of Work or forty (40) hours per week, whichever is the greater.

14.03 Overtime worked shall be compensated at one and one half (1 ½) times the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay or time in lieu at one and one half (1 ½) times the employee's basic hourly rate of pay, if pre-approved by their Coordinator or designate. Any accumulated time in lieu can be taken as time off with approval from their Coordinator and is subject to operation requirements.

ARTICLE 15 - EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

15.01 Health Benefits

- (a) The Employer will provide and maintain current Employee benefit plans through a policy or policies of insurance in the name of the Employer, to cover eligible Employees for the period of this Agreement.
- (b) Cost sharing of health benefit premiums for those benefits listed in Article 15.01(c) shall be as follows:
 - (i) Long Term Disability Insurance - 100% Employee paid
 - (ii) Life Insurance and Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance - 100% Employer paid
 - (iii) Extended Health Insurance - 100% Employer paid
 - (iv) Dental Insurance - 100% Employer paid
 - (v) Health Spending Account
- (c) The Employer will establish for each Full-time Employee a Health Spending Account and will contribute annually seven hundred dollars ($700.00) for each 1.0 Full-time equivalent (FTE) Employee.
- (d) The Employer will establish for each Part-time Employee a Health Spending Account and will contribute annually four hundred and fifty dollars ($450.00) for each Part-time Employee.
- (e) The unused balance will be carried forward for a total accumulation of two (2) years. Employees leaving the employ of the Employer will forfeit any remaining balance.
- (f) All Employees would be eligible after three (3) months of employment.
- (g) The current health care benefit carrier will be administering the Health Spending Account as part of AUMA Group Benefits.

In the event Alberta Health premiums are re-instated cost sharing between the Employer and Employees shall commence.

- (h) In particular, the Employer will obtain and maintain policy or policies of insurance providing the following types of benefits, subject to usual conditions and limitations:

- (i) Life Insurance and Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance;
 - (ii) Long Term Disability Insurance;
 - (iii) Extended Health Insurance;
 - (iv) Dental Insurance.
- (i) A regular part-time or Full-time Employee shall be eligible for health benefits upon completion of the insurer's waiting period and works on average at least twenty hours per week (.5 FTE).
- (j) All benefit plan coverage, terms, conditions, and specific eligibility requirements shall be governed by the actual terms or conditions of the Benefit Plan as amended from time to time. The basic outline of the Benefit Plan is included for information purposes only; it does not constitute part of this Agreement.
- (k) Regular Employees may participate in the Group RRSP program who have successfully completed the probation period. The Group RRSP program shall operate as follows:
- a) The employee will contribute to such plan on a monthly basis in the amount of at least fifty dollars ($50.00) per month commencing upon the completion of three (3) months of employment. Such Group RRSP contribution will be deducted directly from each participating employee's monthly earnings, and
 - b) The Employee shall have the opportunity to either join or withdraw from the Group RRSP program in October of each year.
 - c) The Employer will contribute the amount of four hundred dollars ($400.00) per year for Employees who have up to three (3) years of service, six hundred dollars ($600.00) per year for employees who have worked more than three (3) years but less than eight (8) years of service and one thousand dollars one hundred dollars ($1100.00) per year after eight (8) years of service. Such Group RRSP Employer contribution will be deposited into the Employees RRSP account on or before December 25 of each year; and
 - d) Employees may choose to contribute an amount in excess of the amount listed in (a) above provided the employee notifies the group plan administrator in writing of the increased contribution amount; and
 - e) Should an Employee choose to increase their portion of the contribution up to one hundred dollars ($100.00) per month the Employer shall increase their portion of the contribution in the amount of six hundred dollars ($600.00) per year for Employees who have up to three (3) years of service, eight hundred dollars ($800.00) per year for Employees who have worked more than three (3) years but less than eight (8) years of service and one thousand three hundred dollars ($1300.00) per year after eight (8) years of service. Such Group RRSP Employer contribution will be deposited into the Employee's RRSP account on or before December 25 of each year, and

- f) The contribution's listed in (b) shall be pro-rated from the date of hire with the Employer. The Employer is bound to only pay into the plan on a pro-rated basis for time employed or if the employee resigns their employment; and
 - g) The Employer will contribute one hundred dollars ($100.00) to Employees opting into the group RRSP program for the first time.
- (l) Where an Employee is on an unpaid leave of absence, her benefit coverage will be continued for the first month with the usual cost-sharing arrangements. After that first month and subject to the insurance company's requirements, an Employee may elect to continue her benefit coverage while on unpaid leave as long as she makes prior arrangements for the regular payment of the full premiums for the applicable plans. This means an Employee who wishes to continue benefit coverage during an unpaid leave will pay all benefit premiums, including the Employer and Employee share.

ARTICLE 16 - PAID HOLIDAYS

16.01 Regular Employees are entitled to one (1) day's paid leave based on the hours of work of the Regular Schedule for each of the following holidays:

New Year's Day	August Civic Holiday
Family Day	Labour Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Easter Monday	Victoria Day
Remembrance Day	Canada Day
Christmas Day	Boxing Day

16.02 No payment shall be due for the Named Holiday, which occurs during:

- (a) a layoff, or
- (b) all forms of leave during which a Regular Employee is not paid; or
- (c) an absence while in receipt of disability insurance or Workers' Compensation Benefits.

16.03 When any of the above noted holidays fall on a Regular Employee's scheduled day off, the Regular Employee shall receive:

- (a) by mutual agreement a day off with pay at their basic rate of pay added to the Regular Employee's next annual vacation; or
- (b) a mutually agreed day off with pay at their basic rate of pay in conjunction with the Employee's regular days off within thirty (30) calendar days, after the Named Holiday; or
- (c) one (1) regular day of pay at their basic rate of pay in lieu of the Named Holiday.

16.04 When a Named Holiday falls during a Regular Employee's annual vacation the Employee shall receive:

- (a) by mutual agreement, a day off with pay at their basic rate of pay added to the Regular Employee's annual vacation; or a mutually agreed day off with pay at their basic rate of pay in conjunction with the Regular Employee's regular days off within thirty (30) calendar days of the Regular Employee's return from annual vacation; or
- (b) one (1) day of pay at their basic rate of pay in lieu of the Named Holiday.

16.05 A Regular Employee scheduled or required to work on any of the Named Holidays shall be paid at two and one-half (2 ½ x) times the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay.

Casual Employees who work on a holiday shall be paid for all hours worked on the holiday at one and one half (1 ½) times their basic rate of pay.

16.06 Vacation pay will be accumulated for each Employee and paid out upon written vacation request or upon completion of employment. Casual Employees vacation entitlement shall be paid out each pay period.

16.07 Casual Employees who work on a Statutory Holiday will be paid one and one half (1 ½) times their actual hours worked, plus five percent (5%) of the average daily wage for the previous four (4) weeks of employment. Casual Employees who do not work on a Statutory Holiday will be paid five percent (5%) of the average daily wage for the previous four (4) weeks of employment.

16.08 Employees shall not be eligible for paid holidays during any leave of absence without pay or during periods of layoff.

16.09 At no extra cost to the Employer, an Employee may substitute a paid statutory holiday for an alternative day and date in recognition of the Employee's culture or religion. The Employee shall provide a standing declaration of the substitute religious or cultural holiday of choice or provide no less than one-month notice to the Employer. The operation of this sub-clause shall not result in the Employer providing Paid Statutory Holidays in excess of the maximum number provided in this Article.

ARTICLE 17 - ANNUAL VACATION LEAVE

17.01 Vacation leave entitlement, with pay, shall be earned:

(a) Full-time and Part-time Employees

Full-time and Part-time Employees shall be entitled to an annual paid vacation:

Vacation time is credited to staff every January 1st and may be taken throughout the year. Employees who begin work after January 1st will be credited their allotted vacation time on a prorated basis. The Employee's Coordinator shall be present at such a review, as well as a Union Steward/Representative upon the Employee's request.

19.02 Personnel and other Employee files shall be maintained in a secured office and file cabinet.

19.03 Employee non-disciplinary records and information contained in the Personnel files shall be kept for six (6) years in accordance with current legislation.

ARTICLE 20 - EMPLOYEE APPRAISALS

20.01 Job descriptions and duties shall be accessible to all staff.

20.02 Where a formal evaluation of the Employee's performance is made, the Employee concerned shall be given the opportunity to review and sign the performance evaluation form upon its completion to indicate that its contents have been read.

20.03 The Employee shall have the right to place their own comments on the form, or to append their comments to the form.

20.04 An Employee's evaluation shall not be released by the Employer to any person without the written consent of the Employee, except as required by law.

20.05 The parties recognize the value of an ongoing Employee evaluation system designed to provide effective communications between the Employer and the Employee regarding an Employee's performance. The purpose of the evaluation is to acknowledge accomplishments, identify areas for growth and development, set goals and provide constructive feedback to an Employee and it's designed to support the Employee in achieving performance goals.

ARTICLE 21 - LAYOFF AND RECALL

21.01 Notice

When, in the opinion of the Employer, it becomes necessary to reduce the workforce, the Employer will notify an Employee who is to be laid off, in writing, at least twenty-one (21) calendar days prior to the date of the layoff, except that the twenty-one (21) calendar days' notice shall not apply where layoff results from an act of God, fire, or flood or a natural disaster.

21.02 Layoffs

In determining the order of layoff, the Employer shall lay off in reverse order of seniority by classification. In all instances, layoff is subject to the remaining Employee having the qualifications and ability to perform the work.

21.03 Rights on Layoff

Upon receipt of a layoff notice an Employee may:

- (a) move into a vacant position for which they have the ability to perform the work; or
- (b) displace the least senior Employee in their classification from a position for which they have the ability to perform the work; or
- (c) accept the layoff.

21.04 Recall
