WITNESSETH that the Parties agree as follows;

PREAMBLE: - It is the intent and object of this Agreement that the Company and the Union co-operate to obtain efficient and unrestricted operation of the industry; to promote peaceful and harmonious relations between the Company and its employees, to provide for the amicable settlement of all disputes and grievances, and to establish rates of pay, hours of work, and other conditions of employment to be observed between the Parties hereto.

ARTICLE NO. 1 - BARGAINING AGENCY

- 1.1 The Union is recognized by the Company as the sole bargaining agent for its employees within the classifications hereinafter set forth, or from time to time added hereto it being intended that the Union represent all employees of the Company within the jurisdiction of the Teamsters Union. The Company shall not hereafter be obligated to deal with its employees either individually or in groups, as to matters within the purview of this Agreement, but shall deal only with the duly authorized representative of the Union.
- 1.2 The term "employees" or "employee" when herein used shall mean any workers or worker covered by this Agreement.

ARTICLE NO. 2 - UNION SECURITY

- 2.1 The Company shall, on the first pay period of each month, deduct from each employee of the bargaining unit who has been employed by the Company for seven (7) days the regular Union dues of the Union, and remit same together with a list of the names of the employees from whom the deductions were made, to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union.
- 2.2 Each new employee, after seven (7) calendar days of employment, shall, as a condition of employment, become and remain a member in good standing of the Union for the duration of this Agreement, or while he/she is an employee covered by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 2.3 The Union will supply the Company with application for Union membership, and dues deduction forms which shall be signed by all new employees on the day on which the new employee is hired. All completed copies of the application for membership forms shall be returned to the Union and shall serve as notification of commencement of employment.

ARTICLE NO. 3 - CHECK-OFF OF INITIATIONS

Upon written request of an employee, the Company will, in accordance with the tenor of the request, deduct the employee's Initiation Fee and/or assessments levied by the Union in accordance with the Union's Bylaws, and remit same, together with a list of the names of employees from whom the deductions have been made, to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union, without delay.

ARTICLE NO. 4 - SENIORITY

- 4.1 Seniority shall be based on the length of continuous time an employee has been referred to in the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement.
- 4.2 An employee shall lose all seniority rights, and be deemed terminated, for any one (1) or more of the following reasons:
 - a) voluntary resignation
 - b) discharge for cause

- c) failure to return to work after layoff
 - d) if layoff is longer than twelve (12) months.
 - e) failure to respond to a courier letter within seven (7) calendar days from the date received at the last address on the employee's file.
- 4.3 a) The principle of Seniority shall be maintained in the reduction and restoration of the working force, providing the senior person is capable of performing the remaining job.
- b) An employee must inform the Company immediately of any change in his/her residential location and/or telephone number. This is required in the event the Company wants to contact him/her to return to work. If the Company is unable to do so at the last recorded address or phone number on our file, the Company will rehire the next driver on the Seniority List.
- 4.4 A list showing the seniority of each employee shall be compiled and kept posted on the bulletin board. This list shall be revised two (2) times a year. Any errors shall be reported to the Shop Steward for correction within thirty (30) calendar days after posting of such list.
- 4.5 Senior employees will be given first preference up to five (5) trips each week.
- For this purpose, the work week shall commence on Sunday.
- 4.6 Provided all regular employees have had the opportunity to maximize their number of trips for the week (i.e. 5 trips), additional work will be offered in seniority order, provided the employee has the available hours to complete the trip.

Leave of Absence

- 4.7 Requests for leave of absence shall be in writing, and will consist of a maximum of thirty (30) days; except leaves protected under Federal legislation. All leaves of absence must be approved by the Company. Any extension of leave of absence over thirty (30) days shall be in writing, and agreed upon by the Union, the Company and the employee concerned.

Probationary Period

- 4.9 All newly hired regular employees shall be considered as probationary employees for the first ninety (90) calendar days from date of hire.

There shall be no responsibility on the part of the Company respecting employment of probationary employees, should they be laid off or discharged during the probationary period.

An employee shall be deemed a Regular Employee of the Company when:

- i. They have completed their probationary period
- ii. They make themselves available for full time employment (i.e. available for a minimum of five (5) loads / week).
- iii. They have no other outside employment which will in any manner interfere with their employment with the Company
- iv. They are fully qualified in regards to the Company required physical examination and/or all other Company hiring requirements

4.10 Spare Board Employees

a) A Spare Board employee shall:

- i. be hired on an incidental and temporary basis to provide additional manpower,
- ii. be carried on the Spare Board roster for work availability

4.11 Reporting for Duty - Employees who report for work at their scheduled time, shall be paid a minimum of four (4) hours pay if they commence work, or three (3) hours pay if the employee is unable to commence work as a result of a Company directive. Employees required to work more than four (4) hours shall be paid for the actual hours worked at the regular hourly rate of pay.

The Company will not load a junior employee if a senior employee is in the yard and available for work at the time of the load scheduled.

ARTICLE NO. 5 - ANNUAL HOLIDAYS

5.1 Upon completion of one (1) year or more service, employees shall receive two (2) weeks holiday with pay at four percent (4%) of their prior year's gross earnings.

5.2 All employees with five (5) years or more service, shall receive three (3) weeks holiday with pay at six percent (6%) of their gross earnings.

5.3 All employees who have completed ten (10) years' service with the Company shall receive four (4) weeks holiday with pay at eight percent (8%) of their gross earnings.

5.4 If an employee is laid off or their employment is terminated, he shall be paid out all his remaining vacation accrual.

5.5 For the purpose of determining a year's service, it shall be calculated in calendar years from the employee's seniority date.

Employees shall be allowed to book one (1) week of their vacation entitlement in increments of one (1) day after March 15th.

Employees are further allowed to request their vacation pay to be paid, on an adhoc basis, to cover unpaid days as a result of illness and/or cancelled loads.

The time of vacation shall be fixed by the Company consistent with the efficient operation of the business.

Any unused vacation accrual as of December 31st, will be paid out to the employee.

5.7 The Company shall post on January 2 of each year, a vacation calendar and eligibility for employees to book their vacation time. Employees will select their vacation time by seniority by March 1 of each year. Scheduling conflicts will be resolved between March 2nd and March 14th. The Company will post the approved vacation schedule on March 15th of each year. Where there are weeks in the vacation schedule where no employees have booked vacation time, those weeks will be available to employees on a first come basis provided sufficient notice has been provided. A maximum of ten percent (10%) of the drivers will be allowed off at any one time. Based on operational requirements, Management may allow additional employees to book off.

ARTICLE NO. 6 - GENERAL HOLIDAYS

6.1 The ten (10) recognized Statutory Holidays shall be:

New Year's Day	Labour Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Victoria Day	Remembrance Day
Civic Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day

6.2 All employees will be paid statutory holiday pay in accordance with the Canada Labour Code, which is the average daily earnings based on the two pay periods immediately preceding the statutory holiday (or 1/20th of their wages earned).

6.3 In the event any of the above-mentioned Holidays fall during an employee's annual vacation, he/she shall be given a day in lieu of, to be taken on a mutually agreed upon date.

6.4 If an employee is absent from work due to an accident or illness claim (e.g. EI, WCB), she/he shall not be entitled to receive payment for the Statutory Holiday, while receiving any of these benefits.

6.5 If the Federal Government declares any additional Statutory Holidays, the Company agrees to pay according to the above.

6.6 In the event that a General Holiday falls on a Saturday or Sunday the previous or following regular working day(s) shall be observed as the holiday.

ARTICLE NO. 7 - SHOP STEWARDS

7.1 There may be elected or appointed by the employees, such number of Shop Stewards as the Union may determine, who shall perform such functions as the Union may assign them, provided the duties of the Shop Steward shall not conflict with their regular employment and duties with the Company.

The Company shall only recognize such Shop Stewards and shall not discriminate against them for lawful Union activities. The Shop Steward will receive their regular hourly rate of pay when attending the disciplinary meeting.

Shop Stewards may be granted an unpaid Leave of Absence when requested by the Local Union to perform duties on behalf of the Union. The Union will provide the Company with reasonable notice if it requires a Steward for Union business, and will co-operate with the Company in ensuring that operation and production are not negatively affected.

7.2 The Union and its representatives shall not interfere with any employee or group of employees during working hours, without the consent of the proper official of the Company. The Union understands that any Customer site visit must have prior Management approval.

ARTICLE NO. 8 - MANAGEMENT

8.1 The Union recognizes the right of the Company to manage and direct the Company's business in all respects, and in accordance with its commitments; and to alter from time to time rules and regulations to be observed by the employees, which rules and regulations shall not be inconsistent with this Agreement. Management shall exercise its rights in a fair and non-discriminatory manner.

The Company shall always have the right to discipline or discharge employees, providing there is proper cause.

- 8.2 An employee will be accompanied by a Shop Steward or Business Representative of the Union, if there is to be any meeting or discussion which may result in discipline, unless declined by the employee.

ARTICLE NO. 9 - GENERAL

- 9.1 The Company shall inform all Management and personnel to abide by the rules of this Agreement.

- 9.2 The Company agrees to maintain clean, sanitary washrooms with toilet facilities.

Promotion

- 9.4 a) When an employee within the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement receives leave of absence to take a position within the Company which is beyond the sphere of the bargaining unit, he/she may retain his/her seniority for a maximum of ninety (90) days within the former unit.

- b) At the end of this period the employee must exercise his/her seniority rights by returning to his/her former unit, or relinquish all such seniority rights.

- 9.5 A driver who has completed one (1) year of service with the Company, will be reimbursed the cost of a medical examination which the employee has undergone as a requirement for maintaining his Class 1 Alberta vehicle operator's license. The driver may use the Company designated physician for his medical examination, where applicable.

- 9.6 Health and Welfare Protection - When an employee goes off work ill, or on Compensation, the Company shall continue to pay both his/her Health and Welfare premiums, so the employee shall be protected to the utmost, provided that the employee reimburses the Company for such contributions normally paid by said employee, and is at no time more than five (5) months in arrears.

When an employee returns to work, the Company shall deduct from his/her earnings, any monies the Company has paid out in respect of his/her contributions.

- 9.7 Bulletin Board – A designated Teamster Bulletin Board will be made available in the lunch room for employees.

Safety Boots

- 9.8 The Company shall reimburse all regular employees a maximum of one hundred and seventy-five ($175.00) dollars per calendar year, towards the purchase of CSA approved safety boots. Employees will be reimbursed upon providing the proof of purchase.

- 9.9 All employees covered by this Agreement shall be paid on a biweekly basis.

- 9.10 The Company will provide every employee covered by this Agreement with an itemized statement showing rate of wages, amount of wages, and all deductions made from the gross amount of wages.

Employees are to be paid by direct bank deposit.

Payroll shortages equivalent to one (1) trip or more, are to be paid within seven (7) calendar days upon the employee's request.

If a change is made to an employee's pay after they have submitted it, the employee will be notified of the change prior to pay day.

The Company will indicate the amount of monies deducted for Union dues in the appropriate box on the employee's T-4 Slip.

Training Pay

- 9.11 When an employee is sent out as a driver trainer, the driver trainer shall be paid their regular daily rate plus seventy-five dollars ($75.00) The driver trainer may be required to submit a written report on his observations.
- 9.12 The Company agrees to supply and maintain First Aid Kits to standard. Kit supplies will be replenished as Drivers report use on Vehicle Condition Report forms.
- 9.13 During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no lockout by the Company, or any strike, sit-down, work stoppage, slow-down or suspension of work, either partial or complete, for any reason by the employees.
- 9.14 It shall not be a violation of this Agreement or cause for dismissal for an employee to refuse to cross a legal picket line recognized by the Union.
- 9.15 If possible, in the event that the Company desires to make any long term changes with respect to operations, such changes shall be discussed with the appropriate Business Agent of the Local Union, prior to implementation, with a view to avoiding misunderstandings.

Bereavement Leave

- 9.16 When death occurs to a member of a regular employee's immediate family, the employee will be granted upon request, a maximum three (3) days Leave of Absence and will be compensated at his daily rate of pay for any lost shifts on those days.

Members of an employee's immediate family are defined as the employee's spouse, their children, parents, grandparents, brothers and sisters and grandchildren.

An additional day off will be granted for the purpose of attending the funeral should it not fall within the above three (3) days. It is understood that to qualify for this provision, the funeral must fall on one of the employee's regular work days, and the employee must attend the funeral.

Jury Duty

- 9.17 Any Regular Full-time employee who is required to perform Jury Duty, and/or is subpoenaed as a crown witness, on a day on which he normally would have worked, or attends court in response to a subpoena only to give evidence as a witness concerning matters resulting from an incident which directly involved the employee and/or the Company, occurring during the regular course of his employment with the Company, will be reimbursed by the Company for the difference between honorarium received and his regular straight time hourly rate of pay for his regular scheduled hours.

This clause shall have no application for an employee on Leave of Absence, or when receiving benefits under the Health and Welfare Program, annual vacations, Workers' Compensation or as otherwise covered by this Agreement.

Discipline

- 9.18 An employee will receive a copy of any written reprimand or warning letter placed on his file, with a copy to the Union. Such written reprimand or warning letter shall become a part of the employee's work history. However, the incident causing such written reprimand or warning letter will not be taken into account to compound other disciplinary action taken against the employee if the incidents are unrelated, or if such written reprimands or warning letters are more than eighteen (18) months old for accidents, and twelve (12) months old for all other violations. Reprimands must be given to the employee within fourteen (14) days from the date that the Company was aware of all the details of the infraction.

Closure and Permanent Lay-Off

9.19 In the event of a facility closure, or indefinite lay-off employees shall be paid severance in accordance with the Canada Labour Code.

ARTICLE NO. 10 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

10.1 All questions, disputes, and controversies arising under this Agreement or any supplement hereto, shall be adjusted and settled within the terms and conditions as set forth in this Agreement, in the manner provided in this Article, unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement. The procedure for such adjustment and settlement shall be as follows:

STEP 1 - Any grievance of an employee shall first be taken up between such employee and the supervisor.

Time limit to institute a grievance:

Fifteen (15) calendar days for all matters

For the purpose of the time limits above, the obligation shall only arise at the time the employee knew or ought to have known of an event.

STEP 2 - Failing settlement under Step 1, such grievance shall be reduced to writing, and taken up between the representative of the Local Union or Shop Steward, and the Manager. The grievance shall state the specific nature of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance, the section or sections of the Agreement claimed to have been violated, and the relief sought.

STEP 3 - Failing settlement under Step 2, such grievance and any question, dispute, or controversy that is not of the kind that is subject to Steps 1 and 2, shall be reduced to writing and referred to and taken up between the Secretary-Treasurer or other bargaining representative of the Union, and Management.

If the grievance is not settled at Step 3, the Parties may elect by mutual agreement to convene the Canadian Joint Grievance Panel (C.J.G.P.) or Federal Mediation/Conciliation Services to render a decision. The Parties agree that such decision will be binding however will not set precedent in any future grievances regarding the same issue. The cost of the Panel Hearing shall be shared equally between Parties.

Should the Parties not reach mutual agreement; the matter will advance to Arbitration. Step 5 of the Grievance Procedure.

Failing settlement as per the above, the matter will be referred to an agreed-upon neutral Arbitrator who will meet with the parties to hear both sides of the case. The Arbitrator's decision will be final and binding.

Failing to agree upon a neutral Arbitrator, the Department of Labour will be requested to appoint a neutral Arbitrator, whose decision will be final and binding.

The cost of the Arbitrator will be borne equally by the Union and the Company.

10.2 If the Company desires to submit a grievance, it will do so in writing directed to the Union. Notice of the grievance shall be mailed to the Union within fifteen (15) days of the occurrence of the event upon which the grievance is based.

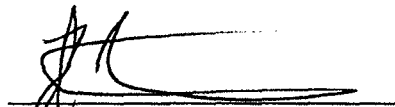

The notice of grievance shall state the specific nature of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance, the section or sections of the Agreement claimed to have been violated, and the relief sought. The Union shall meet with the Company within five (5) days of receipt of notice of the grievance. If no satisfactory solution is reached at this meeting, then the grievance may be referred as hereinbefore provided.

ARTICLE NO. 11 - AMENDMENTS AND TERMINATION

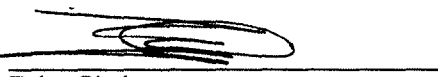

- 11.1 This agreement shall remain in full force and effect from the 1st day of July, 2018 until the 30th day of June, 2023, and from year to year thereafter, until terminated by either Party giving the other Party ninety (90) days' notice, in writing.
- 11.2 If amendments are desired by either Party to become effective in the next ensuing year, the Party proposing such amendments shall give notice in writing to the other Party, not less than ninety (90) days before the thirty-first (31st) day of March in any year.

RE: CANCELLED LOADS PROCESS

The Parties recognize and agree that cancelled loads are always a possibility. This Letter of Understanding is to address the issues around cancelled loads. Cancelled loads can occur for various reasons including but not limited to; a reduction in waste volumes, weather issues, mechanical failures, road conditions, or issues with the transfer and load station as relayed by the Customer. Due to very strict hours of service rules, it is not always feasible to move the employee to another load time.

Therefore, the Company agrees to handle cancelled loads in the following manner;

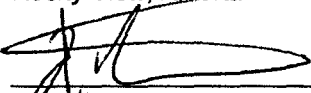

1. Employees will be given as much notice as possible of a cancelled load.
2. Provided the hours of service won't be breached and the employee will be able to resume their regular schedule the following day, the Company will offer the employee another load time slot.
3. If the Company does not provide the affected employee with a minimum of two (2) hours' notice of his load being cancelled, he will be compensated for three (3) hours of pay at his hourly rate.
4. If the employee reports to work and the load is then cancelled, failing option #2 above, he shall then be compensated for four (4) hours of pay at his hourly rate.
5. Employees that are affected by the load cancellation will have the option to use any eligible vacation accrual to compensate for that day.

The Company will endeavor to minimize the impact of load cancellations.
